“Boggis and Bunce and Bean

One fat, one short, one lean.

These horrible crooks

So different in looks

Were none the less equally mean.”

Come prepared to read this wonderful book about 3 rich, nasty farmers who are driven crazy by the night-time visits of the Fantastic Mr. Fox. You are encouraged to read this book before the first meeting date and we have several copies available for checkout in the library. Be ready to discuss plot & characters, study the author Roald Dahl, and play games surrounding this classic tale. We'll meet at a theater December 5 before noon to watch the movie together. Your parents will provide transportation to and from the theatre and will purchase the tickets. Your family is welcome and encouraged to come with us. Then we will meet one more time after the movie to compare and contrast the movie and the book. Please fill out the golden ticket (from Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by the same author) on this website <http://www.roalddahl.com/> and mail it in for a chance to win a free screening of The Fantastic Mr. Fox!

*For Battle of the Books, there is unlimited space. Interested students will meet in the library on their kickoff date to discuss the format of the competition and receive the list of books for this year's battles. Mrs. Israelsen will provide a list of participating students to the office.

I understand that by registering for these classes, I am committed to the entire time frame (calendar dates) and length of the classes (2:45-3:45 for elementary & 3:00-4:00 for middle school). If my child is absent from these classes for unexcused reasons twice in a session, they will be withdrawn from the course. If there is a fee involved, this fee will not be refunded. I also understand that they will not be allowed to join a class in progress once the session has begun. Space is limited; registration forms are accepted and put in a lottery. Children may register and participate in more than one enrichment activity if space is available, but they must register for these classes through this enrollment process.
